A hard fight - Momo vs. Toni

Artikel info:-

Momo is hot for a cool fight and somehow craving for getting Toni to fight against him. Because Toni is talking big against everybody in town and claims to take on everybody. So Momo calls Toni spontaneously who accepts the fight straightaway. Toni arrives after a short time and you can feel that he also wants to fight and demonstrate Momo who is the man. Toni is bigger and you can see that he has trained his body. But is that an advantage? As the title mentions it's a hard fight between both of them. Momo using his feared legscissors squeezing off Toni's breath and squashing his ribs puts Toni through the mill whenever possible. He has a lot of fun to hose his opponent. Toni is fighting back with wedgies, ballgraps and some boxing but has to realize that Momo seems to be immune against his attacks. Already in "My hardest fight" Toni had to suffer against Shorty and in "A hard fight" it's not really getting better for him. Laying on the ground oppressed and broken he has to suffer Momo posing above him, enjoying his victory.

Play length approx - 60 min.
