Backyard Brawls

Artikel info:-

Momo didn't fight for quite some time because he needed a time-out. But he used that time for strength training and we were really surprised when he presented himself some days ago. We invited him over and chose Shorty as his opponent. Equally massy and footballer as well. Shorty agreed and so they met for some garden work. It didn't take much time until Shorty started to anger Momo and it came to a fight. Both rivals in sexy jeans realized that it wouldn't be an easy match. Momo was able to bring Shorty into nearly hopeless positions. After the first 30 minutes the fight got tougher and harder. When we saw long holds in the first half it became much more aggressive in the second half. They pulled on their trousers and use mean wedgies to make the opponent surrender. We won't reveal who could prevail. See that great submission match without show or fake behavior yourself and have fun!
