Erotic Barbecue

Artikel info:-

Actually Knut and Barney just planned to chill at the lake this afternoon and broil some steaks. But that idea already fails when they try to ignite the barbecue. They are just unable to start the fire and blame each other for that foolishness.

Teasing is a sign of affection is what comes to ones mind when you see that they are very quick on the mats to sniff at each other. It's the first time they meet and it seems as if both have just waited for that. Knut loves to be dominated by little Barney who can hope for his first victory this time. But will that happen? They start cautious but the fight gets hotter and more erotic. Long holds, long ballgraps, facesitting, feet in face, wedgies and cock to face attacks are the tricks they use on each other. After some time they need to cool down and so Knut grabs Barney and throws him into the lake. To have his revenge Barney gives everything but Knut doesn't like to surrender and endures long and mean holds. At the end Knut provokes Barney. He undresses completely and wags his tool in front of his face. Hot hot hot!
