Lumberjacks

Artikel info:-

It gets very hearty and rough when Patti and Tibet go into the woods for lumberjacking. This work is very demanding and so they have a break and some beer. And so they get into the mood and Tibet provokes Patti. They want to see who is the stronger one, first with finger wrestling followed by arm wrestling. Afterwards they want to check who has more muscles since Tibet only plays football while Patti does daily workouts. So they measure their biceps, breast, stomach and thighs. Nearly completely unclothed they head to the mats. A one hour hard fight is about to begin. Both are dominant guys and so we see long holds, scissors, bearhugs and headlocks which stay tight even when the opponent whimpers. They can only free themselves using wedgies and mean ballgraps which makes them even more aggressive and so we can also see trampling and punching. Who will be king in the end can be seen in "Holzhackerbuam (Lumberjacks)".

Play length approx - 68 min.
