Fly flying high

Artikel info:-

Little Fly (17) began his Fightplace (debut) with a fight against Moe. Even if he is a small guy, he talked very big. Moe was mad because of this, so he wanted to fight him. They got in trouble while they were in the kitchen and Moe noticed, that his little opponent is way more powerful then he ever expected. Fly was going crazy, grapped Moe's legs and threw him to the ground. Typical for the smaller guys, that they don't want to be the loser. Same situation here. Fly was able to counter nearly every single attack of Moe. Moe got stretched to his limits through the dedication of the little boy. Fly ripped Moe's jeans and tried to torture him with ballgraps. It was a bad decision. Moe was able to turn the fight and our little newcomer got a presentation of dirty fighting. Moe used every single nasty trick he learned and Fly had any chance to turn this. Moe dominated him without mercy. Fly had to taste the smell of Moe's feet and got fettered. This is what you get, if you underestimate Moe. But it was a great job of Fly, who fought very forceful and motivated. He performed some graps you don't expect from a newbie. We're not sure of Fly wants to fight anymore after this torture. We would appreciate it!
