Big Bulge Brawl

Artikel info:-

Marcel is quite nervous when he meets Moe at the clubroom of Fightplace. Marcel moved away from our small town some time ago but it got around that Moe has become a good fighter. Now Marcel is visiting and faces one of the top fighters. In real live Moe seems to be smaller than in the films, little short of harmless. So it seems to be a good idea to challenge the youngster. After all Marcel can look back to many years of fighting experience and has not to worry about the clash. He draws Moe out at a whipped cookie eating contest. And that works. But Marcel didn't expect what happens to him on the mat during the next minutes. He makes no mark against Moe! It is still unbelievable where this young wiry guy gets his power from. Even with more experience and his plus of power, Marcel gets dominated by Moe by every trick in the book. Moe carries him from one position into the next. And presses his bulge into his face again and again nearly passionately. At the same time he grabs between Marcells legs who his defenseless and without power. He must endure a range of schoolboy- and bullypins and has to suffer a lot of humiliations. This chips away at his ego and at some point he bursts with anger. His revenge is a brutal ballgrab. But is Marcel able to turn the tables with this brave tactic?
