Underwear Attack 7

Artikel info:-

Amir has a beef with Moe because he flirted with Amir's girlfriend. Now Amir wants to meet Moe to sort things out between men. But Amir is a little worried that the situation will escalate and has arranged for Jamie to join him. Moe, of course, doesn't let himself be asked for long and invites the two of them to his place of work. He has a job in a car wash and that evening he has a visit from Hamza. The boys wanted to do a little martial arts training after work. Since the hall is big enough, so Moe decided to set up the mat there. When Jamie and Amir arrive at the hall, the situation escalates and a fight and physical altercation ensue. The two teams decide to compete against each other in a tag team fight. We are very sorry, that the first 45 minutes of this fight are lost due to a technical defect. Therefore, we start in the middle of the action. So there is no more so-called warm-up time and we see hard fights, especially between Jamie and Moe. The two don't like each other at all and deliver extremely hard fights, in which the trousers are already torn to shreds shortly after the start of the round. Luckily there are still enough fresh trousers which they can then put on again.

Play length approx 46 min.
