Rip his pants!

Artikel info:-

Jerry (20) is servicing an old excavation machine. He doesn't have much experience with that, so it naturally takes him quite a while. His boss is getting impatient, and he sends out Marcel to see what Jerry is doing. Marcel has been working at the business for some while, he thinks he's all-important, and he does everything to let Jerry know it. But Jerry won't have any of that, and he keeps talking back until the two of them end up fighting. Marcel challenges Jerry, and so they disappear behind the corner, where there are some old mattresses. Jerry fights well, and he's got some tricks up his sleeve. He keeps tugging at Marcel's pants, which won't hold up long to his grip. Soon, they get torn to shreds. Marcel doesn't like this at all, and he tries to retaliate in kind, but Jerry's jeans prove to be way more sturdy. It's not until the two of them had already declared a truce and returned to the hall, that a second match ensues, in which Jerry's jeans finally get destroyed as well. By the way, Jerry is new to Fightplace, but he's already making a good impression in his first fight: Resourceful, aggressive, and ambitious to win the match.
