Warm up for Wrestling

Artikel info:-

In the fitness area of a small wrestling club coach Luis trains Tom and Manuel in the use of the equipment and warms them up for a match on the mats. After a short time Mario and Marlon enter the studio and quarrel with Luis because Marlon thinks he knows everything best. Marlon and Luis have the biggest argument and begin with the first match. Marlon is slightly injured and can't get anything on the by far heavier Luis. Then Mario interferes and everyone is curious whether the experienced small wrestler has a chance against the muscle packed Luis. In the beginning Luis shows no respect, however, he notices that Mario is a difficult opponent for him. It becomes even worse: Mario takes Luis most violently and shows him what 15 years wrestling experience means. Nevertheless, Luis does not want to stand there at the end as the loser. He gets Manuel as the next opponent who is also a professional wrestler. We do not want to give away everything of course… It looks as if both wrestlers (Mario and Manuel) teach the rest about fear on the mat. This time "Warm-up for Wrestling" debuts for you the wiry Asian Tom (19), as well as the athletic Yank Luis (26) and Manuel (27), an experienced wrestler from Germany.
