Schoolboypins 15 - Decision in the mud

Artikel info:-

Joe went to an secluded forest cabin to calm down and think a little. Meanwhile some of his friends know this location. So Moe came around. But instead of being a good friend and supporting him, he is laughing about his new hairstyle and Joe is not that happy about that useless conversation. Last but not least he accepted a fight with the feisty Moe. They jogged at each other and started to wallow in the mud. There are many SchoolBoyPins used, but in case of the wet lawn and the mud they were not able to grab each other. To humiliate Joe, Moe started to grease the mud onto the whole body and into the face of his opponent. But Joe knows how to handle this and took vengeance for this actions. After 45 minutes of fighting you were not able to recognize the two fighters, who are equipollent. Totally dirty because of the mud, injured knees and oppressed bodies. But they still keep on fighting without any inhibitions. They just stopped fighting when Bob suddenly arrived. He drove them back home with his car and let them take a shower.

Play length approx - 43 min.
