Ramons Room 1

Artikel info:-

Alfred stood in front of the door, while Bob arrived. Bob, who is well known for that, joked a little about Alf, but he misunderstood that. But Alf had a bad day, so he started to beef with Bob.
The only room which is suitable for a fight is Ramon's one. Ramon is not that happy about his guests, because he was playing with his toy cars. Then Alf, his brother, asked him for using his room for a fight and Ramon agreed.
Then he watched them fighting in his mattress and took some pictures with his camera. The the men are fighting for the first time. At the beginning they checked each other but then it got more and more forceful. Bob, who was just wearing shorts, always used the opportunity to give Alf, who was just wearing a slip, some hard wedgies. Moreover the Bmx rider performed some hard Headscissors with his strong upper legs, which bothered Alf a lot. Sometimes he was able to revenge but all in all he was not able to beat the Bob. These long holds between his legs are just too energy-sapping.
