Extremes meet

Artikel info:-

Usually the saying goes: "the opposites attract", but not in this case.

Lukas visited Bob in our shared apartment, because he was waiting for his train. Both of them made themselves comfortable in the living room and watched some old fights. But, typical for our fighters, they wore down each other. They always shouted anything out, on every opportunity, but they had to accept a counter of the other one. Finally they were tired of that stupid comments and went up to the attic. After a handshake they immediately began to fight. Large and slim vs. small and muscular. The fight seemed to be well balanced, Bob had to cross his borders. The small Lukas had enormous power, which got him into trouble. He was nearly unable to use any of tricks or to get free of Lukas' grabs. They performed some schoolboypins, scissors and headlocks. Bob had to give up after a very hard scissor of Lukas, which made him unable to move. But he didn't give up the whole fight. Bob tried to perform any nasty trick on Lukas again and again, to outsmart his power. The fight was difficult for Lukas to. Bob is very toll ,but agile, too. Because of his agility he was able to abandon most of Lukas tricks and grabs. Finally Bob performed a hard headlock. Lukas was unable to get free of it.

The very end of this fight was totally unexpected, but for sure there will be a revange!
