Show me your muscles

Artikel info:-

Hardy meets Jermaine at Fightplace. If two machos like this meet each other they're talking about men's health. Hardy wants to know if Jermaine got better and stronger during his time at Fightplace. Their strength measurement starts of with arm wrestling followed by a comparison of their muscles. Both of them undressed to show of and compare the muscles of their arms and legs. But showing of their muscles wasn't enough for them, because both of them want to know who the better fighter is. Hardy and Jermaine are in top shape and start of determined and heavy. Even the first round is powerful and both of them perform various tricks. Both of them are good at performing schoolboypins, scissors and headlocks. Hardy won the first round due to a schoolboypin. The second round seemed to be favoured to Jermaine, but Hardy is not that type of person who likes to lose. So he gets himself free using ballgrabs. Up next both of those alpha men showed us some sporty and hot scenes full of dominance. The fight is balanced nearly until the end. Jermaine and Hardy scored using outstanding scissors, pins and other moves. Using CBT they punished each other until they reached the pain barrier. Hard and hot
