Artikel info:-

In our new Berlin studio boys from many different countries meet up. Today it's Bruce (23) from Spain and Sean (21) from the US. facing each other. Both have very sporty built bodies and were already in the casting hot on fighting. Despite the ambitious fighting and the desire to win, the guys can't hide during the fight, that they are not only hot on fighting, but also find the body of the opponent quite attractive. This gives us a lot to see, which wasn't supposed to happen. Nevertheless it turned out to be a sweaty fight, which demanded a lot from both fighters. Especially Bruce showed more and more towards the end, that he likes to reveal his dominant vein and thus shows his opponent who is the boss on the mat. Sean lets Bruce offer him a lot, but if it gets to too much for him, he makes use of a courageous ball grab. No matter how it turned out. We are sure that both fighters will find their fan base at Fightplace since both fighters don't lack attractiveness and charm!

Sean from the US. is fighting this time against Simon, a 21-year-old handsome sportsman from Romania. Simon already shows what he is made of in his first match on Fightplace and already shows a certain dominance. He does not shy away from attacking his opponent with kicks or from giving the opponent a little "facial massage" with his feet. Sean has to try a lot harder in this fight not to be a loser. A good defense succeeds him in places quite well, so that Simon realises that he's not dealing with a "boy toy". Because Sean, too, can deliver a hard fight, which he shows with good litters and nice body scissors. From the second round on he gets some moves out of his bag of tricks and shows Simon among other things also with wedgies and ass slapping as it can be. Now the fight is nicely balanced and both fighters have to give everything to not be dominated too much by the other. As the boys get into one's pants, a further increase can be noticed. Simon likes to hand out a few slaps while he sits in a schoolboypin on Sean at this he gets pretty close to him :) Will Simon get a win in his first fight? Or is Sean the winner of this match after all?

The slim Christoph takes on "Sixpack Sean" in this fight. After initial stretching and warm-up exercises, the boys go at each other. Due to his extra weight Sean can keep pressing his opponent to the ground for a long time. Christoph, on the other hand, makes it through his agility to put the muscular Sean in torturous positions. He takes revenge quite fast with light ball grabs, whereupon Christoph counteracts with wedgies, which however have already been the more violent kind. That the boys now take a wilder pace, you can also see by the fact that they strip each other's pants and generally with more powerful moves. Both are good at longer Schoolboy- and Bullypins as well as some nice scissors to put the opponent out of action. Sean becomes more dominant during the fight. He practically takes Christoph to his chest and lets him feel his power. From time to time Christoph manages to counterattack, but the master in this match, at least towards the end, is Sean.
