Rip his pants! 2

Artikel info:-

James (18), is new at Fightplace and meets Christoph in the club. They look at fitness and bodybuilding magazines and compare themselves with the models. They also compare each other by checking their biceps and abs. But it should not remain with a visual comparison. They also want to know who is the stronger one on the mat. So off to next door and on the mat. James, a rather handsome guy with a hot body, is still inexperienced in fighting. Christoph has already had a few fights at Fightplace and knows where to go. But surprisingly, he is quickly on the same level as his opponent Christoph. The two lightweights do not take much in size and weight. So they cannot use any advantages by mass but must try to defeat the opponent with endurance, tricks and strength. As their stamina decreases and their technical skills are at an end, the first ballgrabs and wedgies appear. Once started with that, it is difficult to stop again, because everyone wants to inflict the same torture on the other. At some point Christoph has enough and rips James's pants off. Instead of breaking off and organizing a new pair of pants, he fights on in torn pants. And he wants to do the same to his opponent. He should also lose his pants. Technically and fighting not on the highest level, but still sexy and with some nice moves and tricks could be the resume of this match. The Skinnies are certainly capable of learning how to fight and we are already looking forward to a reunion with the guys from Russia.
