Last Chance

Artikel info:-

Hector does not want to sit back and watch his last defeats against his opponent Fabio. So he lurks around the company grounds and catches Fabio shortly before closing time. He is a bit surprised, but can only laugh about Hector's challenge. It quickly becomes clear that neither of them can avoid a fight. Hector, who visibly improves from fight to fight, enters the first round with a pretty big mouth. But it does not end well for him. From schoolboy pin to a tormenting body scissor and back to schoolboy pin, Fabio plays his games with Hector. In the next round it looks much better for Hector. He gets Fabio in a headlock from which he can't get out for a long time. But finally Fabio manages to escape his opponent's clutches. He quickly gets Hector back into his grip. With a long lasting schoolboy pin he wants to show him who is the boss here. With his smelly socks he punishes him additionally for daring to challenge him again. From the schoolboy pin Fabio changes to a headscissor. Hector uses this chance, collects all his strength and can free himself from it. Now it's Hector's turn, because he quickly grabs Fabio in a headlock, takes revenge for a wedgie and holds him for quite a while. But again Fabio manages to squirm out. A special ordeal now begins for Hector. Again he has to smell stinky socks, gets wedgies and his arms and legs are twisted. But he does not give up. On the contrary. Not stupid at all, he gathers his strength again and then turns the tide at the right moment. Nice to see that he can also deal when it matters and he wants to teach Fabio a lesson. Now the fight is quite balanced and both fight for a while for the upper hand. Will Hector's power last until the end? Or will Fabio once again defeat his arch enemy?
