Sadistic surprise

Artikel info:-

The Colombian Coyo was a guest in Berlin and paid Fightplace a visit. He had heard about the small fight club on the internet and really wanted to fight Moe. We were able to fulfil his wish. Before they went into the fight room, they tested their strength in arm wrestling. Coyo is a bit smaller and lighter than Moe. In addition, he has not yet had as much experience in rasslin All this worked in Moe's favour. Nevertheless, Coyo put up a very good fight and did not make it easy for Moe. Especially in the second round, Coyo became quite aggressive after his shorts were torn off in the first round. Now he put all his eggs in one basket, attacked Moe with his feet, got between his legs and tore Moe's shorts as well. But you shouldn't tease Moe too much. Because then you awaken his sadistic streak, which is what happened in this fight. Although in places in the third round it looked as if Coyo might win after all, all the ball grabs and other dirty tricks didn't help. Moe was the stronger and exploited this shamelessly. From a small box, Moe gradually took some "toys", which he then used against Coyo in the final phase of the fight. Now began a fierce ordeal that the little Colombian had to undergo.
